

Nahan Printing Wins Gold and Pewter Awards in 21st Annual Gold Ink Awards Competition

St. Cloud, Minn. – August 29, 2008 – Nahan Printing, Inc. announced today that it has won the Gold and two Pewter awards in the 21st Annual Gold Ink Awards Competition sponsored by “Publishing Executive” and “Printing Impressions” publications. The prestigious competition attracted almost 1,500 entries from printers throughout North America.

Nahan Printing won the Gold honors in the consumer catalog / web category for its entry of the Neiman Marcus The Book May 2007. Nahan also won two Pewter awards for Neiman Marcus The Book March 2008 and Nordstrom Captivating Luxuries November 2007, both in the consumer catalog category.

The Gold Ink Awards Competition recognizes the continent’s top printed pieces in terms of print quality, technical difficulty, and overall visual effectiveness. Now in its twenty first year, the competition is considered one of the most prestigious events honoring the best printing in North America.

“Winning the top award in the Gold Ink Competition is an honor for all of us at Nahan Printing and a testament to our unique capabilities and talented staff,” stated Mike Nahan, President and CEO of Nahan Printing. “The award reflects our commitment to clients and achieving optimal results for them. We are pleased to continue this tradition of excellence at Nahan Printing.”

The Gold Ink award-winning printers will be recognized at the Gold Ink Awards banquet in Chicago in late October 2008.
